

OWEN ROSE GARDEN

General Information

Owen Rose Garden is available to rent for small weddings and other family gatherings. The maximum group size allowed is 50 people. Gatherings are typically held in the grassy area of the park near the cherry tree or in the gazebo. The garden can be reserved for a three-hour block of time. (Typically, one hour is used for set-up, one hour for the ceremony, and one hour for clean-up.) The street address for Owen Rose Garden is: 300 North Jefferson Street, Eugene, Oregon.

Park Amenities

Electricity is available at the gazebo.

Fifty dark green chairs are available for rent. The event planner is responsible to set up and take down the chairs. Chairs cannot be placed in any locations other than on turf and hard surface areas. The chairs are located in a shed on the east side of the fenced storage area in the garden. The key for unlocking and locking the gate of the storage area and the shed may be picked up at 1820 Roosevelt Blvd. Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. just prior to the event. The same key also unlocks the electrical outlet boxes in the gazebo. It is the renter's responsibility to return the key on the first business day following the event. If the key is not returned, part or all of the deposit may be held.

Restrictions

The park is available for ceremonies only; there are no facilities available for receptions.

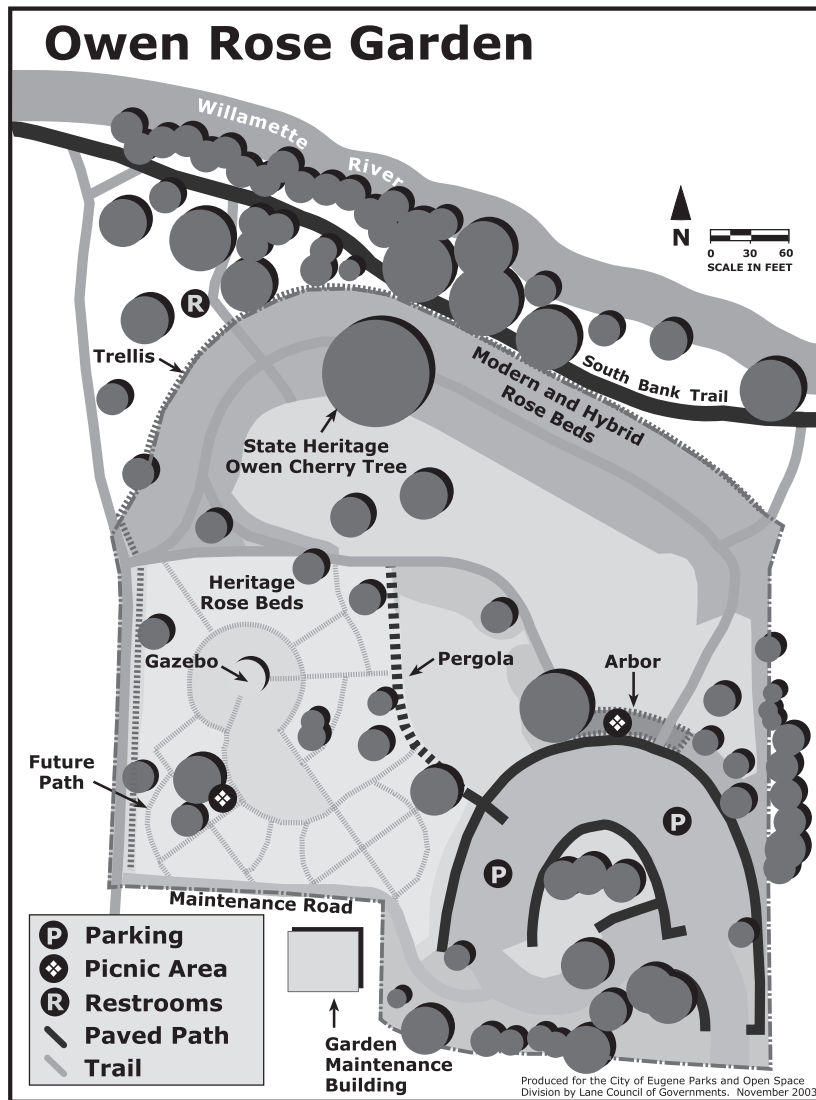

Amplified sound is prohibited although permission may be granted for soft or low-volume music.

Alcohol is prohibited.

Event planners must obtain permission before using chairs other than those provided at the garden. Only chairs with sled-based legs may be used on turf areas. All City of Eugene park rules apply.
